Kono-Basho Staff Rants

Kono-Basho staff ranting over repeatedly being asked to write

Howdy all!

We proudly present you the new chapter of Gargantuan! And this time to represent Washington United team against Scholastic! Without watermarks! Pretty right?

Now talking about watermarks, there have already complete about the watermarks. I would like to point out few things.

1. The one need to be thanked for the existence of this watermark is www.theforgemaster.net as it has releasing the new watermark version 2 days after the first version (as if you don't like the watermark version, you could just wait for the next watermark version)

Also I have been pretty sick of applicant for almost a year now. Staff don't grow up from time you know. So let's encourage the reader (if there is still any) to help us recycle staff.
